CAST OF ELF, JR.

CAST OF ELF, JR.

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

I like when a show can tell us a great story, lift our mood, provide outstanding entertainment, or even help us to look at something in a different way. But I LOVE when a show can help us to grow or become better versions of ourselves. While Elf is certainly an endearing story filled with wonderful songs and moments of humor that are already classic, and it is entertaining for the young and young-at-heart, it is so much more.

If we substitute Buddy the Elf for the person who is an eternal optimist and think of Santa as a person who is always generous and nurturing, then we can find in this show a cast of characters we know. They are the people we work with, the people we call friends, and the people in our very own families. What is special about this show is not that the characters are relatable or comparable to people we know; rather, it is seeing what is possible when we believe in ourselves and those around us. When we believe in a greater good, everything is possible.

That belief in something larger than ourselves, in our greater community, begins with self-worth and acceptance of others. Inclusion, diversity, and truly valuing the gifts we all have to offer is how we grow as individuals, a community, and a society. As you enjoy the fun and lighthearted side of Elf, I encourage you to also be in the moment and embrace the beauty of a story that shows us how easily we can come together and celebrate limitless possibilities for what we can achieve when we accept, value, and believe.

Thank you for supporting EPAC and this show. Our cast, crew, production team, and staff are grateful for this opportunity to share a wonderful message wrapped in layers of fun. Every day is truly another chance to make it better.

- Hope O'Pake, Director

He has designed many shows, including Wicked Christmas Carol, Moana, Into the Woods, Elf, Peter Pan, Flat Stanley, Don't Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus, Curious George, and Oliver!. He has assisted with many other shows including Charlotte's Web, Suessical, Shrek, Christmas Carol, The Wizard of Oz, and The Prom. Thank you to the cast and crew for all your hard work, and to the audience for coming! Enjoy the show!

Keith Eyrich (Properties) - I-I have absolutely no idea what we're doing here. Or what I'm doing here, or what this place is about, but I am determined to enjoy myself. And I'm very intrigued, and, oh my, this soup's delicious, isn't it?

Karey Getz (Stage Manager) - Karey is excited to be back at EPAC stage managing another kids show. Christmas is her most favorite holiday and she thinks that "The best way to spread Christmas cheer is singing loud for all to hear!" She loves working with all these kids and watching them literally grow up here at EPAC. No stranger to the stage or behind the scenes, she was most recently seen at Susquehanna Stage in her first (and their first) solo cabaret. Thanks to Ed and Hope for this opportunity, the wonderful production team, her friends and family for all their support, and to Cheddar Beans and Asparagus Elliott for being the best little stinks this crazy cat lady could ever ask for. And remember "There's room for everyone on the Nice List!"

Her favorite role remains that of Amanda's biggest fan. Thank you to Ed and Alec for the opportunity, the Board for their support, and the Production Team, cast, and crew for bringing Elf to life! Shout out to Karey, Britt, and Amanda for another great run together!

Grant Patrick (Sound Designer/Board Operator) - Grant is thrilled to bring Elf, Jr. to the EPAC stage. He is a local sound designer from the Lancaster County area and was recognized for Best Sound Design of a Play or Musical in 2022 by Broadway World for his work in EPAC's Amadeus.
